

'Pugin Land' North Staffordshire

Hannah Barter
Director, Urban Vision Enterprise CIC

'Pugin Land' A Community Focus

Urban Vision has worked with the Cheadle Tourism Group to mark the 200th anniversary of the birth of one of the foremost architects of the Victorian period A.W.N Pugin.

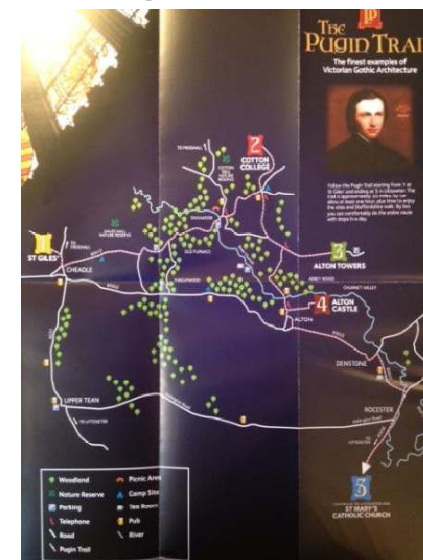

Funding & The Future

This project was made possible with funding from:

- Heritage Lottery Fund West Midlands
- Communities Mean Business Leader Programme, part of the Rural Development Programme for England
- local partners and a group of local sponsors and supporters

Map of 'Pugin Land'

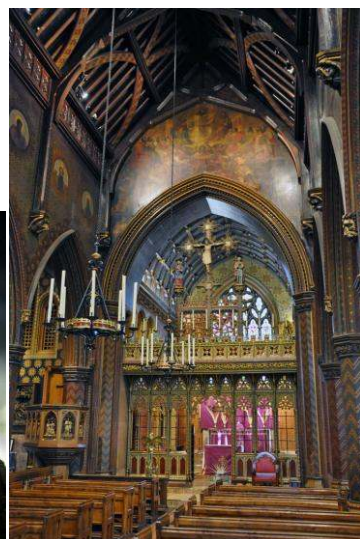

Cheadle and District:
known as 'Pugin Land' with a concentration of 14 buildings designed and built by A.W.N
Pugin

‘Pugin Land’

'Pugin's Gem', St Giles, Cheadle: Built in 1846

Alton Towers: Extended by Pugin in 1840

'Pugin Land'

Alton Castle & Hospital of St John: Extended 1841

(Fee Simpson: Photographer)

Cotton College & St Wilfrids: Built 1848

Our Project Aim

43 community projects over 12 months:

- Intergenerational
- Skills & Knowledge
- Awareness raising
- Fun!

Legacy Projects

What Next?

Hannah Barter

Hannah is a chartered town planner and qualified urban designer with nine years' experience in the public and third sectors, in planning, arboriculture, urban design, community engagement and environmental education.

Hannah was awarded the Chesterton Zoe Dawson Award in 2002-03 for her work on urban green spaces with Birmingham City Council. She previously worked in development control for Lichfield District Council and Rutland County Council prior to joining Urban Vision North Staffordshire as Project Development Coordinator.

Hannah has played an active role in the West Midlands, acting as vice-chair and chair of the RTPI West Midlands Urban Design Forum. At Urban Vision she became a CABE Spaceshaper facilitator and accredited Building for Life Assessor. She is also a chartered member of the Royal Town Planning Institute.

Hannah Barter

Contact

Urban Vision is based at the Burslem School of Art

Queen Street, Burslem, Stoke-on-Trent ST6 3EJ

Telephone: 01782 790595

Email: info@uvns.org